Information for Harmed Investors

This page contains information about certain SEC enforcement actions. In some of these actions, funds have been paid by defendants or respondents to satisfy a judgment and the SEC, in its discretion, may seek to distribute these funds for the benefit of harmed investors. Some of the distributions in these cases are administered by SEC staff, and in other cases, a third-party Fund Administrator/Distribution Agent has been appointed by the Commission or court to administer the distribution. For more information regarding a certain SEC enforcement action, please see the list of cases below.

Please note this list does not include matters where a Receiver distributes funds. For information regarding those distributions, visit the Receiverships page.

Helpful resources:

- To find out whether a private class action relating to your investment has been filed, you can visit the website of the Securities Class Action Clearinghouse.
- If your broker-dealer has gone out of business, you can visit the website of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation to find out whether the broker-dealer is in liquidation under the Securities Investor Protection Act and if so, how you can file a claim form.
- If you are aware of potential violations of the securities laws, please submit a tip or complaint online.
